UNIVERSITY OF GHANA
(All rights reserved)
DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP COLLEGES OF EDUCATION
END OF SEMESTER ONE EXAMINATIONS FOR LEVEL 300, 2024/2025
B.ED. PROGRAMME

COURSE CODE: TEEG 303/TEUP/TEJS 301
COURSE TITLE: GUIDANCE AND COUNSELLING FOR EARLY, UPPER GRADE & JHS

Instruction: Answer all questions in Section A and any three questions in Section B.
Time: 2 hours

SECTION A

[25 Marks]

Answer all the questions in this section.

1. Which of the following best describes the main goal of guidance and counseling in schools?
   a. To ensure strict discipline among students in all schools.
   b. To assist students in understanding themselves and making informed decisions.
   c. To limit students' career choices to 21st century requirements.
   d. To promote competition among students to prepare them for the future.

2. The difference between guidance and counseling is primarily that:
   a. Guidance is directive, while counseling is non-directive.
   b. Counseling is for discipline, while guidance is for career choices.
   c. Guidance involves therapy, while counseling does not.
   d. Counseling is always group-based, while guidance is individual.

3. Which of these is a core function of guidance and counselling in schools?
   a. Administrative tasks for the school's management.
   b. Classroom management to enhance discipline in schools.
   c. Emotional and psychological support for students.
   d. Financial management for students needy but brilliant students.

SIGNATURE: _____

STUDENT'S ID NO: _____

4. The most appropriate approach to career guidance for students is:
   a. Exploring students' interests and abilities.
   b. Focusing only on high-paying careers.
   c. Imposing specific career paths.
   d. Limiting options based on academic performance.

5. Which principle is essential in maintaining confidentiality in counseling?
   a. Discussing cases with peers to seek their assistance.
   b. Keeping information private unless there is a risk of harm.
   c. Reporting all cases to parents to keep them informed.
   d. Sharing information only with school administrators.

6. A student expresses suicidal thoughts during a counseling session. What is the most appropriate action for the counselor to take?
   a. Ignore the statement because the student is just joking.
   b. Inform the parents and refer to a mental health professional.
   c. Promise to keep it a secret to ensure confidentiality of information.
   d. Punish the student for such thoughts since suicide is a sin.

7. During a counseling session, a student remains silent. What should the counselor do to encourage communication?
   a. End the session immediately if the student won't talk.
   b. Force the student to speak so that you can assist.
   c. Ignore the silence and move on with the counseling.
   d. Use open-ended questions to prompt responses.

8. If a student is facing bullying but hesitates to report it, what is the most effective counseling approach?
   a. Advising them to confront the bully directly to address the issue.
   b. Encouraging them to share their experiences confidentially.
   c. Ignoring the issue because it is not an academic issue.
   d. Suggesting they change schools as a way of escaping the bullying.

9. A counselor notices a pattern of absenteeism in a student. What should the counselor first?
   a. Ignore the absenteeism behavior as it is harmless.
   b. Punish the student to serve as a deterrent.
   c. Report the student to the head of the school.
   d. Schedule a session to explore underlying issues.

SIGNATURE

10. If a student feels pressured by parental expectations, what is the best counseling strategy?
    a. Advise the student to leave home to avoid the high expectations.
    b. Criticize the parents for expecting so much from their ward.
    c. Help the student explore personal interests and communicate effectively with their parents.
    d. Suggest to the student to ignore the parents' advice and move on.

11. Which of the following scenarios best illustrates effective peer counseling?
    a. Peers giving advice based on personal biases and preferences.
    b. Peers listening empathetically and maintaining confidentiality.
    c. Peers spreading information about others to peers.
    d. Peers ignoring each other's problems and focusing on their own problems.

12. A teacher wants to integrate career guidance into lessons. What is the best approach?
    a. Assigning careers based on students' grades.
    b. Avoiding career discussions in class.
    c. Discussing various careers related to the subject matter.
    d. Limiting information to traditional careers only.

13. A student reports that cultural beliefs are discouraging them from pursuing higher education. How should the counselor respond?
    a. Advise them to accept their situation.
    b. Explore the student's aspirations and empower them with information and options.
    c. Dismiss the cultural beliefs as irrelevant and unrelated to pursuing higher education.
    d. Suggest immediate relocation to another country to access higher education.

14. Which is the most effective strategy to address gender bias in career counseling?
    a. Encouraging all students to pursue traditional gender roles.
    b. Providing information about diverse career paths irrespective of gender.
    c. Discouraging female students from taking careers in STEM fields.
    d. Promoting only female-dominated careers for girls and women.

15. If a student displays aggressive behavior during a session, the counselor should:
    a. Ignore the behavior and continue with the session.
    b. End the session abruptly to escape danger.
    c. Remain calm and use de-escalation techniques.
    d. Respond aggressively to ward the student away.

16. Which scenario demonstrates a breach of confidentiality in counseling?
    a. Consulting another counselor for advice anonymously.
    b. Discussing a student's case with other teachers without consent.
    c. Keeping session details private to ensure confidentiality.
    d. Reporting risk of harm to appropriate authorities.

SIGNATURE

STUDENT'S ID NO:

17. How can a counselor ensure cultural sensitivity during sessions?
    a. Acknowledging and respecting the student's cultural background.
    b. Enforcing their own cultural beliefs during counselling sessions.
    c. Focusing only on academic issues during counselling sessions.
    d. Ignoring cultural aspects during counselling sessions.

18. Which of these is a key indicator of a successful counseling session?
    a. The student feels heard and understood.
    b. The counselor dominates the conversation.
    c. The student is given strict instructions.
    d. The session ends quickly to save time.

19. A student expresses fear of public speaking. Which counseling approach is most effective?
    a. Advising them to avoid presentations.
    b. Cognitive-behavioral techniques to address the fear.
    c. Forcing them to present in class immediately.
    d. Ignoring the fear of public speaking.

20. How should a counselor handle a conflict between two students?
    a. Facilitate a mediation session focusing on effective communication.
    b. Ignore the conflict and let the students proceed with their academic work.
    c. Punish both students equally to serve as a deterrent to others.
    d. Take sides based on personal opinion and give judgement.

21. Counsellor Amoako encouraged his students to use hand sanitizers and wear face masks on/outside campus. This best describes…
    a. Educational information
    b. Orientation information
    c. Personal-social information
    d. Vocational information

22. Counsellor to client: "As for me I don't have time for any adult above 70 years in my office. At your age, you should know everything." The MOST appropriate Guidance principle the counsellor is violating is…
    a. Guidance is a continuous process
    b. Guidance emphasizes the positive
    c. Guidance is concerned primarily and systematically with the personal development of the individual
    d. Guidance is based upon recognising the dignity and worth of the individual as well as the right to choose

23. Counsellor to client: "Shut up! You don't have any excuse for not attending the guidance seminar. You will be punished." The MOST appropriate Guidance principle this is violating is…
    A. Guidance is a team effort
    B. Guidance is concerned primarily and systematically with the personal development of the individual
    C. Decision making is essential
    D. Guidance is oriented toward co-operation and not compulsion

24. The counsellor said to her grieving client, "I'm very sorry for your loss." Which among the following is MOST appropriate?
    A. Acceptance of self
    B. Focusing on self
    C. Reassuring, encouraging and supporting
    D. Reflection of feelings

25. When Obed entered the school counsellor's office, the counsellor said to him: "You are welcome. Please sit down. You look very smart this morning." Which among the following is MOST suitable?
    A. Attentiveness
    B. Genuineness
    C. Empathy
    D. Rapport

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

SECTION B

[75 Marks]

Answer any three (3) questions in this section.

1. a) Discuss three (3) challenges facing the successful implementation of guidance and counselling in Ghanaian schools. (15 marks)

   b) Suggest any two ways of addressing the implementation challenges identified in question 1 (a) above. (10 marks)

2. Explain five (5) guidance services provided in Ghanaian schools and analyze their impact on student development. (25 marks)

3. Assess five (5) roles of effective communication plays in counseling and how it influences the success of a counseling session. (25 marks)

4. Discuss the importance of confidentiality in ensuring effective counseling in Ghanaian schools. (25 marks)

5. Evaluate cognitive restructuring and assertive training as modification techniques an assess their effectiveness in school settings. (25 marks)