STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

LIBRARY P. O. BOX 14

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA

(All rights reserved)

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP

COLLEGES OF EDUCATION

END OF SEMESTER ONE EXAMINATIONS FOR LEVEL 300, 2023/2024

B.ED. PROGRAMME

COURSE CODE: TEJS 331

COURSE TITLE: ECONOMIC HSITORY OF GHANA: FROM PRE-COLONIAL TIMES TO THE END OF COLONIAL PERIOD

Instruction: Answer all questions in Section A and any three questions in Section B.

Time: 2 hours

SECTION A

[25 Marks]

Answer all the questions in this section.

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

INSTRUCTION: Read the following questions carefully and select the best option from A – D

1. The most significant factor that influenced the types of crops grown in different regions of pre-colonial Ghana was?
   A. Access to advanced farming technologies
   B. Availability of farming tools
   C. Expertise of Indigenous people
   D. Variations in climate and soil quality

2. The development of iron tools was crucial for the advancement of agriculture in pre-colonial Ghana because they?
   A. Allowed for more efficient clearing of land for farming.
   B. Enabled the production of new types of textiles for trade.
   C. Facilitated the storage and transportation of agricultural products.
   D. Improved the quality of building materials for housing.

3. What was the primary benefit of intercropping in pre-colonial Ghana?
   A. Enriched the soil by replenishing lost nutrients.
   B. Facilitated long-distance trade with neighbouring communities.
   C. Increased the overall yield of specific crops.
   D. Provided a readily available source of animal feed.

4. The most likely group responsible for overseeing large-scale farming operations and managing agricultural resources in pre-colonial Ghana was the?
   A. Enslaved people
   B. Hunters and gatherers
   C. Lineage elders and chiefs
   D. Skilled artisans

5. Agriculture provided sustenance and contributed to development of the pre-colonial Ghanaian societies because it?
   A. Encouraged the development of large-scale manufacturing industries.
   B. Facilitated the growth of long-distance trade networks.
   C. Fostered the emergence of complex political systems.
   D. Led to the widespread adoption of foreign religions.

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

6. How did the availability of natural resources influence the development of traditional industries in pre-colonial Ghana?
   A. All regions adopted the same industries regardless of resources.
   B. Industries primarily focused on the extraction of locally available resources.
   C. Regions with limited resources lacked any significant traditional industries.
   D. Traditional industries relied solely on imported raw materials for production.

7. Which of the following played the biggest role in the flourishing of the gold mining industry in pre-colonial Ghana?
   A. Development of complex machinery
   B. High demand and networks with other regions
   C. The presence of readily accessible deposits
   D. Widespread adoption of a single currency

8. Which of the following BEST exemplifies the description of goods produced for the long-distance trade?
   A. Basic iron tools used for agricultural purposes
   B. Elaborately woven cloths with intricate designs
   C. Simple clay pots for cooking and storing food
   D. Sturdy wooden furniture crafted for everyday use

9. Terracotta sculptures reflected the cultural values and beliefs of the society because they
   A. Served as representations of deities, ancestors, and spiritual concepts.
   B. Were primarily used for practical purposes like storing food and water.
   C. Were produced solely for export to other cultures and regions.
   D. Were strictly used by the ruling class as symbols of their authority.

10. The exchange of goods along internal trade routes was greatly influenced by the?
   A. Desire to acquire luxury goods from distant lands
   B. Imitation of foreign trading practices
   C. Need to fulfill specific colonial trade regulations
   D. Presence of complementary resources

11. The arrival of Europeans on the Gold Coast in the 15th century contributed to
   A. A decline in the importance of gold
   B. Significant rise in the demand for local goods
   C. Increased diversification of trade goods
   D. Gradual disappearance of traditional trade practices

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

12. The triangular trade impacted trade patterns on the Gold Coast by?
    A. Facilitating the exchange of goods directly
    B. Introducing new forms of currency and standardised trade practices
    C. Decreasing the export of gold from Ghana
    D. Causing a decline in trade routes within Ghana.

13. Europeans significantly changed Ghana's trade patterns but some aspects of pre-colonial trade practices persisted, such as the
    A. Roles associated with pre-colonial trade networks
    B. Exclusive use of gold as a form of currency in all trade transactions
    C. Reliance on European manufactured goods to meet essential societal needs
    D. Spread of European languages for communication in trade

14. Slaves in the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade were obtained through?
    A. Kidnapping and sale,
    B. Debt defrayment and atonement for crime
    C. Warfare and capture
    D. Rulers and wealthy individuals' support

15. Europeans acquired slaves in the Gold Coast through?
    A. Raid and Capture.
    B. Establishment of large plantations.
    C. Military support of African rulers.
    D. Exchange of goods, such as weapons.

16. Abolition of the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade impacted the Gold Coast by?
    A. Causing a decline in European trade.
    B. Replacing slave trade with slavery.
    C. Causing economic losses and social instability.
    D. Ending all forms of slavery within the Gold Coast.

17. Which of the following was a major economic impact of the slave trade?
    A. Improvement in living standards.
    B. Widespread cultural homogenisation
    C. Emergence of political alliances and rivalries
    D. Rapid technological advancements

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

18. Which of the following BEST characterises the difference between the Gold Coast economy and pre-colonial economy?
    A. Shift from subsistence agriculture to large-scale production of cash crops
    B. The decline of traditional industries and a reliance on imported goods
    C. Establishment of a decentralised economic system
    D. The widespread adoption of a barter system for all trade transactions

19. Colonial infrastructure development in the Gold Coast is sometimes negative because it?
    A. Facilitated the transportation of goods and resources within the colony
    B. Caused the decline of traditional trade routes.
    C. Primarily served the interests of the colonial administration
    D. Negatively affected the development of indigenous knowledge.

20. Colonial rule affected Gold Coast economy in the long-term because it?
    A. Left a complex legacy that continues to shape Ghana today.
    B. Solely hindered development and caused widespread suffering.
    C. Ushered in a golden age of prosperity and progress.
    D. Historians cannot agree on its lasting consequences.

21. The success of some individuals in Gold Coast is considered significant because it?
    A. Demonstrates the potential for local agency.
    B. Shows exploitation of local communities for personal gain.
    C. Relied exclusively on government support and intervention
    D. Solely focuses on replicating European business practices.

22. Which of the following BEST exemplifies Governor Gordon Guggisberg's focus on economic development?
    A. Abolition of slavery.
    B. Establishment of the system of indirect rule.
    C. Introduction of compulsory education.
    D. The launch of a ten-year development plan

23. The primary goal of Guggisberg's infrastructure projects was?
    A. Movement of goods and resources within the colony.
    B. Providing European settlers with businesses.
    C. Providing recreational opportunities.
    D. Replacing traditional transportation methods.

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

24. Which of the following factors posed the greatest challenge to indigenous enterprise on the Gold Coast?
    A. Access to a readily available and skilled workforce
    B. Limited access to capital and credit facilities
    C. Unrestricted competition from European businesses
    D. Government support enterprises

25. How does studying indigenous entrepreneurs contribute to an understanding of the colonial era?
    A. By demonstrating the superiority of European business.
    B. Focusing exclusively on the economic achievements of a select few.
    C. Providing insights into the complexities of the colonial economy.
    D. Highlighting the negative aspects of colonialism.

STUDENT'S ID NO:_____ SIGNATURE: _____

SECTION B

Answer only THREE (3) questions from this section. All questions carry equal marks.

1. Choose any two crops from the list below and analyse their significance in the pre-colonial Ghanaian economy, emphasizing their uses, trade routes, and cultural importance. (25mks)
   i. Kola Nut
   ii. Gold
   iii. Palm nut
   iv. Cotton

2. In what four (4) ways did the colonial economy impact traditional industries? (25mks)

3. (a) Differentiate between Legitimate Trade and the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade. (10mks)
   (b) Briefly discuss how the colonial government improved the following sectors of the Gold Coast economy: (15mks)
   (i) Agricultural sector
   (ii) Finance sector
   (iii) Mining sector

4. Explore the concept of the triangular trade and show its effects on continents (25mks)

5. Discuss the life and times of any two (2) of the following personalities as an entrepreneur in the Gold Coast: (25 marks)
   (i) John Kabes
   (ii) William Nahr Ocansey
   (iii) R.J. Ghartey
   (iv) Alfred Bannerman