UNIVERSITY OF GHANA
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP
DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

2024/2025 ACADEMIC YEAR, SECOND SEMESTER
END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS
COURSE CODE: TEJS 216 COURSE TITLE: TEACHING ENGLISH
COURSE LEVEL: 200

DURATION: 2 HOURS

SECTION A
(25 Marks]

ANSWER ALL THE QUESTIONS IN THIS SECTION.

1. Which language teaching method involves an extensive use of the native language and places less emphasis on oral communication?
   A. Grammar-Translation Method
   B. Communicative Language Teaching
   C. Inductive Grammar Teaching
   D. Audio-Lingual Method

2. Which of the following best describes the sequence of the inductive technique?
   A. Specific to general
   B. General to specific
   C. Abstract to concrete
   D. Deductive to inductive

3. What is the primary goal of the inductive teaching technique?
   A. Teaching specific rules first
   B. Promoting critical thinking and discovery
   C. Emphasizing deductive reasoning
   D. memorizing facts and information

4. The central figure around whom the actual story of prose evolves is called
   A. Antagonist
   B. Villain
   C. Foil
   D. Protagonist

5. In her approach to teaching grammar, Mr. Mohammed usually presents grammar rules first, followed by practice exercises. The method that best describes his approach is
   A. Inductive Grammar Teaching
   B. Deductive Grammar Teaching
   C. Task-Based Language Teaching (TBLT)
   D. Audio-Lingual Method

6. To help learners master grammar structures, Miss Kama prefers to use repetition and drills. The method of teaching grammar used by Miss Kuma is
   A. Grammar-Translation Method
   B. Task-Based Language Teaching (TBLT)
   C. Communicative Language Teaching (CLT)
   D. Audio-Lingual Method

7. Which method was introduced in teaching grammar in reaction to the Grammar Translation Method?
   A. Audiolingual method
   B. Direct method
   C. Communicative method
   D. Structural method

8. The method of teaching composition in which the teacher engages the learners and allows the freedom to create under minimal supervision could be termed as .....
   A. Control writing
   B. Controlled writing
   C. Free composition
   D. Guided composition

9. The approach to language teaching that gives more prominence to word, phrase and sentence patterns is called .....approach/method.
   A. audiolingual
   B. communicative
   C. direct
   D. structural

10. In Miss Ohui's JHS 1 Class, she ensures that students pronounce words correctly and use grammar appropriately. Her approach to grammar teaching is
   A. Audiolingual
   B. Communicative
   C. Direct
   D. Structural

11. Which of the approaches uses roleplay, dialogues, and field trips?
   A. audiolingual approach
   B. communicative approach
   C. direct approach
   D. structural approach

12. In Miss Leno's approach to teaching, she first guides students to identify patterns, gives them examples, and they formulate a rule for the topic of the day. Her approach to teaching is
   A. deductive
   B. deductive-inductive
   C. inductive-deductive
   D. inductive

13. In addition to having low proficiency skills in English, Mr. Agbemevia's JHS students are also weak in reading and writing. What approach should she use to teach them grammar?
   A. Grammar Translation Method
   B. Communicative approach
   C. direct approach
   D. structural approach

14. You are teaching a mixed-ability English class where students struggle to understand phrases. Which approach would best help them figure out the meanings?
   A. Give them a list of phrases with dictionary definitions to memorize individually
   B. Translate the phrases for them without discussion
   C. Have students work in pairs and small groups to brainstorm possible meanings,
   D. Provide written exercises on phrases

15. While analyzing a sentence in class, your students can identify nouns and verbs but cannot explain how prepositional phrases function. What is the most effective next step?

A. Ask them to rewrite the sentence without the prepositional phrase
B. Have them work in small groups to locate phrases in the sentence
C. Provide them with a grammar handout to read at home
D. Give them an assignment on prepositional phrases

16. A teacher wants to help students improve their composition writing skills for writing personal stories based on their own experiences. Which type of composition should the teacher focus on?

A. Argumentative
B. Expository
C. Narrative
D. Descriptive

17. A teacher assigns students to write an essay explaining the benefits of regular exercise, supported by facts and logical reasoning. This task is an example of which type of composition?

A. Expository
B. Narrative
C. Descriptive
D. Creative

18. The following are good reasons for teaching vocabulary except.....

A. acquiring extensive reading skills
B. fulfilling a core component of language proficiency
C. helping learners attain an essential requirement in learning a second language
D. helping learners to overcome speaking problems

19. Mr Johnson taught his class a list of vocabulary. In his presentation, he used images and real objects to facilitate the learners' understanding. What procedure did he use in teaching the vocabulary?

A. Concrete technique
B. Contextual technique
C. Explanation method
D. Word relations

20. One of the following is not a characteristic of spoken English.

A. punctuation
B. Turn-Taking
C. pitch
D. Pausing

21. The use of illustration and demonstration in teaching meaning of words belong to the explanation technique.
    A. True
    B. False

22. Summarising is NOT a sub-strand of reading in the Common Core Programme Curriculum for Junior High School.
    A. True
    B. False

23. The oral language strand of the CCP curriculum for JHS includes listening comprehension and English sounds.
    A. True
    B. False

24. A concise description of the work, containing the main points is known as _____
    A. a composition
    B. a summary
    C. an essay
    D. an article

25. In communicative language teaching, all the following are all typical teacher roles EXCEPT.
    A. sets the communication context of a lesson
    B. leads the communication process among all participants
    C. provides feedback on student's work
    D. acts as a need's analyst and counsellor

SECTION B

75 Marks

Answer any three (3) questions in this section.

1. You JHS students have a challenge in understanding the English sentence pattern. You have identified the direct method as an approach to teaching them to overcome this challenge.
    a) Define the direct method [2 marks]
    b) Outline two main features of this method that we will see in your class. [4 marks]

c) Explain three (3) advantages you have in using the direct method in your given context [9 marks]
d) Explain two (2) limitations you foresee your students facing if you continue to use the direct method in teaching them all your grammar classes. [4 marks]
e) Explain two (2) strategies you would incorporate when using the direct method that can help you overcome the limitations [6 marks]

2. You are planning a grammar lesson for your JHS class. As the facilitator, you have used both the inductive and deductive approaches in the past.
a. Define the inductive and deductive approaches in grammar teaching. [4 marks]
b. Explain the key difference in how the inductive and deductive approaches are taught in the classroom. [5 marks]
c. Explain three advantages of using the inductive approach rather than the deductive approach in grammar teaching. [9 marks]
d. Describe two limitations you might face if you rely only on the deductive approach for all your grammar lessons. [4 marks]
e. Suggest one strategy you could adopt as the teacher to combine the strengths of both approaches while minimising their weaknesses. [3 marks]

3. A. With the aid of illustrations, write short notes on the following elements of prose fiction [20 marks]

i. Plot
ii. Conflict
iii. Setting
iv. Characterization

B. You are tasked with convincing a group of new JHS English teachers about the importance of teaching literature. Identify 2 ways in which teaching literature is relevant at the JHS level. [5 marks]

4. a. Explain each of the following terms and provide two contexts [15 marks]

i. Skimming
ii. Scanning
iii. Close Reading.

b. How do these three skills work together to help a reader comprehend a complex text efficiently? (5 marks)

5. Discuss any five (5) activities you would use to teach spoken English in your JHS classroom.