

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA

(All Rights Reserved)

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP

END OF YEAR ^{TWO} ~~ONE~~ FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION 2021/2022

B. ED PROGRAM

TEJS 263: PHILOSOPHICAL FOUNDATION OF HOME ECONOMICS

Instruction: Answer all questions in Section A and any three questions in Section B.

Time: 2 hours

1. The development of Home Science in Ghana dates back to the arrival of in the Gold Coast.
 - A. British missionaries
 - B. Merchant and missionaries
 - C. Portuguese merchant
 - D. Wesleyan missionaries
2. The training of girls in Domestic Science in the Gold Coast churned women who became excellent managers in
 - A. Domestic concerns and good nurses
 - B. House helps and good wives
 - C. Mending and housekeeping
 - D. Sewing and housekeeping
3. The first school established in the Gold Coast to teach domestic science trained girls in
 - A. Housekeeping

- B. Needlework
 - C. Reading
 - D. Sewing
4. Which of the following is NOT an indigenous practices/issues in teaching and learning of Home Economics?
- A. Child welfare
 - B. Housewifery
 - C. LAT Families
 - D. Needle work
5. The idea of training girls/young women for homemaking is a/an in teaching and learning of Home Economics.
- A. Contemporary practice
 - B. Domestic practice
 - C. Indigenous practice
 - D. Scientific practice
6. An individual who carry research on the processing, preservation, and safety of food in terms of freezing of food for optimal preservation, sanitary handling of foods, packaging techniques, and appropriate machinery is referred to as?
- A. Food chemist
 - B. Food scientist
 - C. Food Technologist
 - D. Nutrition Consultant
7. The abolishing of the slave trade which led to the establishment of schools was based on the concept of
- A. Egalitarianism
 - B. Equality
 - C. Human right
 - D. Humanitarianism
8. Which model in Home Economics is also referred to as homemaking?
- A. Application of science for improving environment
 - B. Education of women for womanhood
 - C. Inductive reasoning
 - D. Management of household
9. The Teaching of Home Economics emphasizes the home as a unit of society and management of the home as a business which needs critical thinking and special training to achieve goals. Which model best describe this statement?
- A. Application of science for improving environment
 - B. Education of woman for womanhood
 - C. Inductive reasoning
 - D. Management of household

10. A field of study and a profession, situated in the human sciences that draws from a range of disciplines to achieve optimal and sustainable living for individuals, families and communities is termed as
- Food and nutrition
 - Vocational skills
 - Home economics
 - Management in living.
11. Who introduced domestic science and industry as one of the department of his laboratory school in 1899 at the University of Chicago?
- Aristotle
 - Charles Richards
 - John Dewey
 - William James
12. Which model in Home Economics is also referred as Human Ecology?
- Application of science for improving environment
 - Education of women for womanhood
 - Inductive reasoning
 - Management of household
13. Which model in Home Economics is also referred to as homemaking?
- Application of science for improving environment
 - Education of women for womanhood
 - Inductive reasoning
 - Management of household
14. Aristotle's system of categories of knowledge includes all except
- Domestic wisdom
 - Intuitive wisdom
 - Practical wisdom
 - Theoretical wisdom
15. Who defined entrepreneurship as a process of creating incremental wealth and in which year?
- Gana, J.S.S. (2001)
 - Hisrish and Peters (2002)
 - Kimberly and Vinyard (1998)
 - Macmillan, N. (1995)

16. The first school established in the Gold Coast to teach domestic science trained girls in

- E. Housekeeping
- F. Needlework
- G. Reading
- H. Sewing

17. In 1921, Miss Ruby Quartey Papafio headmistress of Government Girls School introduced laundry-work into the formal school system. In 1922 cookery was introduced. The first dish, cooked on three stone fire stove under a tree was?

- A. Boiled yam
- B. Boiled sweet potato
- C. Boiled cassava
- D. Boiled corn

18. Which model in Home Economics is also referred as Human Ecology?

- A. Application of science for improving environment
- B. Education of women for womanhood
- C. Inductive reasoning
- D. Management of household

Fill in the answer

19. The focus and concerns of home economics is on the.....

20. I am unique in nature by borrowing knowledge from other disciplines, I am in charge of managing the individual, the home, the family including their health and the environment, who am I.....

SECTION B

[30 Marks]

Answer all the questions from Section B

1. State and explain five (5) characteristics of an entrepreneur?
2. State and explain four (4) factors that shaped Home Economics in the United States?
3. State and explain four (4) models that shaped Home Economics?