

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP
DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

2024/25 ACADEMIC YEAR, SECOND SEMESTER
END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATION
COURSE CODE: TEUP 318
COURSE TITLE: ENGLISH CLASSROOM ORGANIZATION, MANAGEMENT
AND ASSESSMENT

COURSE LEVEL: 300 DURATION: 2 Hours

SECTION A
[25 Marks]

Answer all questions in this section

1. How can teachers address conflicts in the English classroom?
 - A. Ignoring conflicts and allowing them to resolve themselves.
 - B. Engaging in heated arguments with learners.
 - C. Using a non-threatening tone in private talks.
 - D. Immediately removing disruptive learners from the classroom.

2. In the English classroom, teachers set and maintain high expectations for both learners' behavior and academics to.....
 - A. Create a stress-free learning environment
 - B. Encourage a positive learner attitude.
 - C. Promote inconsistent reinforcement.
 - D. Minimize parents' engagement.

3. In which situation is the authoritarian management style most suitable?
 - A. When creative problem-solving is essential
 - B. When skills are abundant in the team
 - C. When tasks are urgent and time-critical
 - D. When empowering team members is a priority
4. Which classroom management technique focuses on preventing unexpected behavior?
 - A. Proactive management
 - B. Reactive management
 - C. Conduct management
 - D. Covenant management
5. Organizing the physical space of the English classroom contributes to one of the following:
 - A. It has no impact on instruction.
 - B. It minimizes teacher supervision.
 - C. It supports effective and safe learning.
 - D. It encourages learner disengagement.
6. Which strategy involves responding to unexpected events in the classroom to restore a positive learning environment?
 - A. Preventive management
 - B. Reactive management
 - C. Conduct management
 - D. Covenant management
7. In the roundtable seating arrangement, how do learners and teachers face each other?
 - A. All learners face each other
 - B. In rows facing the teacher
 - C. Learners and teachers all face each other
 - D. In a double horseshoe formation
8. How does open-ended questioning enhance student learning in a student-centered environment?
 - A. Encourages teamwork
 - B. Increases teacher autonomy
 - C. Encourages critical and creative thinking
 - D. Encourage extra-curricular activity
9. Which action is considered an ethical issue in the classroom?
 - A. Failure to mark attendance
 - B. Discussing a learner's personal problems in front of the class
 - C. Forgetting to submit a lesson plan
 - D. Not attending a staff meeting

10. What is the emphasis of student collaboration and group projects in a student-centered language classroom?
- A. Promotes learner autonomy
 - B. Appreciation for diversity and respect
 - C. Promote student-teacher relationships
 - D. Encourages self-centredness
11. What are the three key elements of Assessment for Learning?
- A. Assess, grade, communicate
 - B. Diagnose, assign, remediate
 - C. Assess, diagnose, remediate
 - D. Summarize, evaluate, rank
12. In a student-centered language classroom, the main role of technology?
- A. To ensure discipline
 - B. To extend the learning space
 - C. To improve integration for engagement
 - D. To ensure and enhance teacher autonomy
13. Which of the following is an example of a reactive classroom management strategy?
- A. Establishing classroom rules
 - B. Setting up a behavior contract
 - C. Ignoring inappropriate behavior
 - D. Planning engaging lessons
14. Why is an organized classroom environment important for effective teaching?
- A. It looks aesthetically pleasing
 - B. It minimizes disruptions and maximizes learning
 - C. It impresses visitors
 - D. It allows for more classroom decorations
15. Which of the following is an example of a preventive classroom organization strategy?
- A. Implementing a time-out for disruptive learners
 - B. Managing learners' inappropriate behavior
 - C. Reacting to disruptive behavior with scolding
 - D. Establishing routines and planning engaging lessons
16. How does effective content and covenant management contribute to a positive classroom culture?
- A. By enforcing strict rules
 - B. By discouraging collaboration
 - C. By creating a supportive and inclusive environment
 - D. By promoting a competitive atmosphere

17. Classroom management goes with certain principles. These principles are based on a theory. What is the name of that theory?
- A. Theory of discipline
 - B. Theory of responsibility
 - C. Theory of motivation
 - D. Theory of learner centeredness
18. The learners in a well-managed classroom exhibit the following EXCEPT.
- A. They are responsible for their time
 - B. They know and follow the procedures that structure the organization of the class
 - C. They are engaged in planning
 - D. They learn, achieve, and produce visible results
19. One of the following is part of the immature, irritating, or thoughtless behaviours that learners exhibit in class.
- A. Solving simple arithmetic
 - B. Insulting teachers
 - C. Insulting other learners
 - D. Side conversation
20. The ability to arrange language, thoughts, information, and actions in a certain order is known as.....
- A. Management
 - B. Organisation
 - C. Orderliness
 - D. Sequencing
21. Student-centered learning is also sometimes referred to as.....
- A. Personified learning
 - B. Personalised learning
 - C. Individual learning
 - D. Sole learning
22. Which of the following best describes a legal issue in education?
- A. A teacher giving more praise to only learners they like
 - B. A teacher charging parents unapproved school fees
 - C. A teacher arriving late to class
 - D. A teacher dressing casually to school
23. It teaches critical thinking skills, problem-solving and encourages learners to set achievable goals for themselves and objectively measure their progress.
- A. Assessment for learning
 - B. Assessments as learning
 - C. Assessment of learning
 - D. Assessment in learning

24. In one of the following classrooms, learners are deeply involved with their work, and the climate of the classroom is work-oriented, but relaxed and pleasant.
- A. A well-accessed classroom
 - B. A learner-centered classroom
 - C. A well-managed classroom
 - D. A well-organized classroom
25. A teacher shares a video of learners in his class on social media. The action is a
- A. A legal issue
 - B. A professional issue
 - C. An ethical issue
 - D. Ethical, legal and professional issue

SECTION B

[75 marks]

ANSWER ONLY THREE QUESTIONS

1. a. Discuss the three main types of assessment you will use in your English language classroom.
b. For each type, discuss at least two contexts you will utilize the assessment type in your English classroom.
2. Maintaining discipline in the language classroom is essential for creating an effective and focused learning environment. Discuss 4 strategies for discipline in the language classroom [25mks].
3. a. Discuss three styles of seating arrangements you will use in your classroom.
b. Discuss two contexts you will employ each of the styles.
4. Discuss at least five most important legal issues you would uphold in your prospective classroom.
5. a. Explain the concept of a student-centered learning environment.
b. Discuss four strategies you will employ in ensuring student-centered learning in your English classroom.