

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP
DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER EDUCATION

2024/25 ACADEMIC YEAR, SECOND SEMESTER
END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATION

COURSE CODE: TEEG 318

COURSE TITLE: ENGLISH CLASSROOM ORGANIZATION, MANAGEMENT
AND ASSESSMENT

COURSE LEVEL: 300 DURATION: 2 Hours

---

SECTION A

{25 Marks}

Answer all questions in this section

1. In the English classroom, teachers set and maintain high expectations for both students' behavior and academics to.....
  - A. Create a stress-free learning environment.
  - B. Encourage a neutral student attitude.
  - C. Promote inconsistent reinforcement.
  - D. Minimize parents' engagement.

2. How can teachers address conflicts in the English classroom?
  - A. Ignoring conflicts and allowing them to resolve by themselves.
  - B. Engaging in heated arguments with students.
  - C. Using a non-threatening tone in private talks.
  - D. Immediately removing disruptive students from the classroom.

3. Organizing the physical space of the English classroom contributes to one of the following:
  - A. It has no impact on instruction.
  - B. It minimizes teacher supervision.
  - C. It supports effective and safe learning.
  - D. It encourages student disengagement.

4. In which situation is the authoritarian management style most suitable?
- A. When creative problem-solving is essential
  - B. When skills are abundant in the team
  - C. When tasks are urgent and time-critical
  - D. When empowering team members is a priority
5. Which classroom management technique focuses on preventing unexpected behavior?
- A. Proactive management
  - B. Reactive management
  - C. Conduct management
  - D. Covenant management
6. Which strategy involves responding to unexpected events in the classroom to restore a positive learning environment?
- A. Preventive management
  - B. Reactive management
  - C. Conduct management
  - D. Covenant management
7. In the roundtable seating arrangement, how do learners and teachers face each other?
- A. All learners face each other
  - B. In rows facing the teacher
  - C. Learners and teachers all face each other
  - D. In a double horseshoe formation
8. In a student-centered language classroom, the main role of technology is
- A. To ensure discipline
  - B. To extend the learning space
  - C. To improve integration for engagement
  - D. To ensure and enhance teacher autonomy
9. How does open-ended questioning enhance student learning in a student-centered environment?
- A. Encourages teamwork
  - B. Increases teacher autonomy
  - C. Encourages critical and creative thinking
  - D. Encourage extra-curricular activity
10. What is the emphasis of student collaboration and group projects in a student-centered language classroom?
- A. Promotes learner autonomy
  - B. Appreciation for diversity and respect
  - C. Promote student-teacher relationships
  - D. Encourages self-centredness

11. What are the three key elements of Assessment for Learning?

- A. Assess, grade, communicate
- B. Diagnose, assign, remediate
- C. Assess, diagnose, remediate
- D. Summarize, evaluate, rank

12. Which of the following is an example of a reactive classroom management strategy?

- A. Establishing classroom rules
- B. Setting up a behavior contract
- C. Ignoring inappropriate behavior
- D. Planning engaging lessons

13. Which of the following is an example of a preventive classroom organization strategy?

- A. Implementing a time-out for disruptive students
- B. Managing learners' inappropriate behavior
- C. Reacting to disruptive behavior with scolding
- D. Establishing routines and planning engaging lessons

14. Why is an organized classroom environment important for effective teaching?

- A. It looks aesthetically pleasing.
- B. It minimizes disruptions and maximizes learning.
- C. It impresses visitors.
- D. It allows for more classroom decorations.

15. How does effective content and covenant management contribute to a positive classroom culture?

- 1. By enforcing strict rules
- 2. By discouraging collaboration
- 3. By creating a supportive and inclusive environment
- 4. By promoting a competitive atmosphere.

16. Classroom management goes with certain principles. These principles are based on a theory. What is the name of that theory?

- A. Theory of discipline
- B. Theory of responsibility
- C. Theory of motivation
- D. Theory of learner centeredness

17. The ability to arrange language, thoughts, information, and actions in a certain order is known as.....

- A. Management
- B. Organisation
- C. Orderliness
- D. Sequencing

- 18. The students in a well-managed classroom exhibit the following EXCEPT.
- A. They are responsible for their time
  - B. They know and follow the procedures that structure the organization of the class
  - C. They are engaged in planning
  - D. They learn, achieve, and produce visible results
- 19. One of the following is part of the immature, irritating, or thoughtless behaviours that students exhibit in class.
- A. Solving simple arithmetic
  - B. Insulting teachers
  - C. Insulting other students
  - D. Side conversation
- 20. Student-centered learning is also sometimes referred to as.....
- A. Personified learning
  - B. Personalised learning
  - C. Individual learning
  - D. Sole learning
- 21. It teaches critical thinking skills, problem-solving and encourages students to set achievable goals for themselves and objectively measure their progress.
- A. Assessment for learning
  - B. Assessments as learning
  - C. Assessment of learning
  - D. Assessment in learning
- 22. In one of the following classrooms, students are deeply involved with their work, and the climate of the classroom is work-oriented, but relaxed and pleasant.
- A. A well-accessed classroom
  - B. A learner-centered classroom
  - C. A well-managed classroom
  - D. A well-organized classroom
- 23. Which of the following best describes a legal issue in education?
- A. A teacher giving more praise to only students they like
  - B. A teacher charging parents unapproved school fees
  - C. A teacher arriving late to class
  - D. A teacher dressing casually to school
- 24. Which action is considered an ethical issue in the classroom?
- A. Failure to mark attendance
  - B. Discussing a student's personal problems in front of the class
  - C. Forgetting to submit a lesson plan
  - D. Not attending a staff meeting

25. A teacher shares a video of students in his class on social media. The action is a
- A. A legal issue
  - B. A professional issue
  - C. An ethical issue
  - D. Ethical, legal, professional issue

SECTION B

[75 marks]

ANSWER ONLY THREE QUESTIONS FROM THIS SECTION

1. "Classroom Organization and Management is a prerequisite to effective teaching and learning in the English classroom". Discuss five reasons to support the statement.
2. a. Discuss the three main types of assessment you will use in your English language classroom.
b. For each type, discuss at least two contexts you will utilize in the assessment type in your English classroom.
3. a. Explain the concept of a student-centered learning environment.
b. Discuss four strategies you will employ in ensuring student-centered learning in your English classroom.
4. Discuss at least five most important legal issues you would uphold in your prospective classroom.
5. a. Discuss three styles of seating arrangements you will use in your classroom.
b. Discuss two contexts you will employ each of the styles.